FOURTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MINORITY LANGUAGES

Edited by Durk GORTER, Jarich F HOEKSTRA, Lammert G JANSMA
and Jchannes YTSMA (Fryske Akademy)

The theme of this conference was 'Comparative Research on Minority Languages and Development of Theories'. The three previous conferences focused mainly on problems of definition, on language in society and on the linguistics of minority languages. In this 4.ICML the editors have tried to go forward by concentrating, on the one hand, on comparative research regarding minority languages and on the other hand on the development of theories in this field. They have welcomed a confrontation of different emerging theoretical perspectives.

Journal of ASIAN PACIFIC COMMUNICATION

Editors:

Howard Giles, Dept of Communication Studies, Univ. of California, Santa Barbara, USA
Herbert D. Pierson, English Language Teaching Unit, The Chinese Univ. of Hong Kong

Editorial Board:

Michael Bond, Florian Coulmas, John Edwards, Stanley Feldstein,
Joseph Forgas, Dell Hymes, Bjorn H. Jernudd, Braj B. Kachru, Robert B. Kaplan, Eddie C. Y. Kuo, John A. Lent, Liu Yongquan, Don R. McCreary, Ellen Rafferty, Bonifacio P. Sibayan, Stella Ting-Toomey, Albert H. Yee.

Research into language issues and communication problems in the Asian Pacific region is investigated across a range of disciplines and appears in a wide diversity of published outlets. In addition, any linguistic and communication problems faced by Southeast Asian immigrants elsewhere in the world are also located in disparate contexts. This journal is the first real attempt to provide a forum for such widespread concerns to be published in the English language.

Initially each volume of the journal will consist of a single issue of approximately 250 pages. It is, however, expected that this will become a quarterly publication in the fourth or fifth year of publication. The first volume will appear in February 1990. The second and third volumes will be special issues on the Economics of Language in the Asian Pacific edited by Florian Coulmas, Chuo University, Tokyo, and Language and Identity edited by Braj B. Kachru, University of Illinois. Potential contributors are invited to submit their papers direct to the editor concerned.
